

How to Submit my Application to the Office of Research Compliance for IRB Review

When the last team member has sign-off an application, then the application is automatically submitted to the Office of Research Compliance to begin the IRB Review process. An email will be sent to the PI and team members notifying them that the application has been submitted.